

finnish change covid19 supply low income life freedom solidarity transfer toward labour cost education citizen role economic new redistribution gender women book idea personal growth security public implication approach pension capitalism experiment participation international implementation beyond solution class critical problem system employment egalitarianism role comprehensive labor scheme grant capital family time political germany technological politics comparative development based generation revolution guarantee wealth child distribution net press radical credit perspective india free distributive effect benefit reform proposal exploring health century challenge unemployment europe fair australia equality pandemic future crisis poor impact people potential household two debate program sustainability need countries policies parijs tax guaranteed africa global unconditional analysis programme wage state review principle right economy concept market argument ethic versus source america ubi sustainable way united money pilot association individual poverty value south issue real job protection human minimum negative making european note low research theory poor feasibility impact making european note low research theory